BROOKS CUTS RIBBON ON TWO NEW CONCESSIONS AT GREATER ROCHESTER INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT

Additions Reinforce GRIA's National Standing as a Premier Mid-Sized Airport

Monroe County Executive Maggie Brooks today led a ribbon cutting ceremony recognizing the opening of two significant new concessions at the Greater Rochester International Airport (GRIA). Gusto, a family-owned Italian bistro, is the newest addition to an already impressive selection of concessions offered at GRIA. The recent opening of a vendor that co-locates three national franchise concepts – Mrs. Fields Cookies, Pretzel Maker, and TCBY Yogurt – was also commemorated.

“As Monroe County Executive, I am proud to call the Greater Rochester International Airport our community’s ‘Gateway to the World,’” said Brooks. “Yet oftentimes, the Greater Rochester International Airport is also the world’s gateway to Monroe County and our community’s first chance to make an impression. That’s why Monroe County is proud to welcome the Gusto and Mrs. Fields concessions to our airport, because first-class amenities truly help to make that invaluable first impression a positive one.”

Gusto, located in the entrance to Concourse A, serves made-to-order breakfasts, fresh salads, paninis, pastas, and more. In Italian, “gusto” means taste or flavor, and Gusto’s menu certainly has something for everyone to enjoy. Patrick Guiliano, owner, has been serving Monroe County residents and visitors alike at the Restaurant’s Alexander Street location since 2006 and is proud to say that his family possesses a love affair with good food and drink.

“Our goal is to combine fresh ingredients with our best family recipes and serve them to you”, said Guiliano. “This passion for food and family has brought me to where I am today. I encourage families across Monroe County to come and eat with us at the Gusto table.”

Brooks also recognized the opening of another new concession at GRIA that co-locates the national franchise concepts Mrs. Fields Cookies, Pretzel Maker, and TCBY Yogurt. Located in the Public Airfield Viewing Area at the upper west end of the terminal, the vendor serves a variety of fresh baked products made on the premises, including pretzels, pretzel dogs, cookies, brownies, and frozen yogurt.

“We’re very excited to be a part of the Airport” said Jui Trivedi, the franchisee of the newly opened triple brand location. “We look forward to serving the travelers, visitors, and employees of the Greater Rochester International Airport.”
